

ACTING CHAIRMAN MAKES HER REPORT

Mrs. John B. Lightfoot Tells What Has Been Already Done at Jamestown.

FUTURE POLICY SUGGESTED

Rest-House and Pavilion to Be Built—Official Guides to Be Secured.

The following most interesting annual report was submitted by Mrs. John B. Lightfoot, acting chairman of the Jamestown committee, at the annual A. P. V. A. meeting Friday evening last. Mrs. Lightfoot said:

It is difficult in making the annual report of the Jamestown committee to so condense the items of interest occurring there as to give a full account and yet keep the paper within the limits of time at a meeting where the work of the association in all its departments must be reviewed. I will submit to you, therefore, such items as seem of vital importance, and such recommendations for the coming year as will enable us I hope to cope with the pressure and difficulties of.

Since our last annual report the sea wall built by the United States government has been completed and nothing can add so materially to the protection and advancement of Jamestown in this superb piece of masonry.

The tanks in the shipyard have been carefully boxed and the channel equally protected, while the memorial building of the Colonial Dames is to proceed.

A temporary room has been rented to the caretaker's home for keeping the souvenirs, photographs, books and relics.

An unusual flow of water, while boring the extension well, was recorded April, 1906, at a depth of 26 feet, the supply it is stated, as forty-five gallons a minute, with a rise of twenty-five to twenty-eight feet in height; in quality it is soft, clear and limpid.

The memorial building of the Colonial Dames is now under construction, the foundation with the main entrance already finished, and the brick walls will be in the process of building. It is hoped this building will be completed before the winter.

The Daughters of the American Revolution House, which will be a reproduction of the home of the Walter H. Johnson in England, will be finished, as by statement of the legend, Mrs. E. L. Purcell, about the beginning of the next year. An eastern entrance gate to the grounds will be finished, and a northern one will be built by the association funds. A truly glorious donor who wishes to be known in this gift as a Virginian will give a brick and iron enclosure, with ornamental gates, around the old church and graveyard.

Strangely enough, no report came from the president's letter to the association to J. A. for a monument to Captain John Smith, the southeastern rampart of the fort has been reserved for its location.

The Pennsylvania Monument Association, on a recent visit to Jamestown, unanimously accepted the site on the north-eastern rampart of the fort for the bronze statue of Washington, which they hope to have completed and to place by the spring. The Norfolk branch is raising funds for a monument of the first House of Burgesses, and has given a site on the southern side of the graveyard, about equal distance from the rampart.

A subcommittee from your Jamestown committee has been formed, with Mr. R. A. Lancaster, Jr., as chairman. Messrs. James H. Jones and W. G. Standish, as members, this committee will plan the erection of a house on the grounds and houses under its direction, a permanent rest house, with a water front, is to be built, and a pavilion constructed, with whatever other improvements are deemed expedient.

Mr. Young, of this committee, will design an ornamental basin as a suitable finish to the arbor and his past work at Jamestown is a guarantee of the success of this.

For Coming Year.

The following recommendations are made to the association after careful thought, and the same are made that they may meet with approval, and through them some better place be found to meet the difficulties of the coming year.

I would suggest that two excursions for the benefit of the association be run weekly to Jamestown—one from Richmond and one from Norfolk; that we secure the services of an active young man on a salary commensurate with his services who will superintend all business details, and make in every case the weekly excursion thus watching the interests of the association; that a different local committee be appointed each day to oversee the execution of what shall advertise it and work for its success in whatever way her business may suggest. I would urge in reference to chartering a boat, which would be not only expensive, but a great risk, that an arrangement be made with the Old Dominion Steamship Company, that the surplus over and above the average travel be, on those appointed days, the profit of the A. P. V. A.

This plan seems to me feasible and much safer for the association than hiring a boat. I would recommend as to poles that the blade that we secure the services of an experienced officer of police, giving him a corps of well-trained assistants.

I would also suggest that we have a Virginian by birth and a graduate of one of her seats of learning to hold the position of official guide, giving him as his assistants eight or ten students of Virginia schools.

For such a position I have in my mind's eye a Virginia gentleman whom I believe

Gans-Rady Clothing

Represents the very highest skill in tailoring, and shows the choicest and most exclusive patterns. It is different from all other Clothing. It equals the finest custom-tailor's productions.

Gans-Rady Company

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Sixth Page.)

A special car will be in readiness at 1 o'clock A. M. Admission will be by card. Mrs. Hollister to Be Honored.

The ladies of the Maconbees, of Richmond, are preparing for a reception to the public to be given in honor of their supreme commander, Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister, of Detroit, Mich.

The entertainment will take place Wednesday, October 24th, at 10 o'clock P. M., in the Masonic Temple. Some of Richmond's best talent will participate in the program, and Mrs. Hollister will make an address.

Called Meeting.

An important called meeting of Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at 11 A. M. to-morrow (Monday), in Lee Camp Hall. Amendments to the constitution that will be brought up at the Gulfport convention will be discussed at this meeting, and arrangements for an excursion to the Jamestown Exposition Grounds on Saturday, November 10, to be personally conducted by Mrs. Gilt for the chapter, will be perfected.

Memorial Services.

Mrs. N. V. Randolph has received from Mrs. W. R. McKenney, president of the Virginia Division of the U. D. C., a telegram sent to Mrs. McKenney by Mrs. Leslie George Henderson, of Greenwood, Miss., president general of the Daughters of the Confederacy, which says:

"Have memorial services for Mrs. Davis throughout your division, on October 22d, at 4 P. M."

Flowers received for the occasion of Mrs. Davis' funeral too late for insertion this morning were from the Texan Chapter of Tex, Ala., through Mrs. F. S. Wood; from Mrs. Vaughn, of New Orleans; from the Florida Division, and the South Carolina Division of the U. D. C. These designs were all beautiful, and most appropriate.

Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Silliman, of New York, came to Richmond to attend the funeral and as representatives of the Dixie Club of New York, which sent a lovely floral emblem.

Party Returned.

A party of Richmonders returned yesterday from Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Canada. They report a most delightful trip, with ideal weather and many pleasant incidents.

Those in the party were the Rev. J. J. Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ryburn, Miss Lucy Throckmorton, Miss Gladys Neal, Mrs. Lucy Stear, Miss Louise Stace, Misses Hankins, Mrs. White, Miss Palmer and others.

To Kindergartners.

Mr. William S. Gordon will deliver two lectures at the Richmond Training School for Kindergartners, No. 11 West Main Street, on October 23d and the other October 26th, subject "What Is Life?" and "The Emotions." All who are interested in these subjects are invited to be present.

Personal Mention.

Misses Page Newman and Margaret Baugh of Oak Grove Academy, are spending a few days in Richmond.

Mrs. E. A.ough, who has been very ill at the Memorial Hospital, is very much better.

Miss Mattie Atkinson has gone to visit friends and relatives in Boston, Mass. She will return about the last of December.

Miss Kate P. Baylies, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Best, of No. 2200, East Marshall Street.

Mrs. Luisa C. McPhail, State recording secretary for the King's Daughters, will leave Monday afternoon for Portsmouth to attend the annual convention, which opens on Tuesday morning.

Mr. N. J. Wood has accepted a position in Houston, Texas, and will leave for his new home in a few days.

Miss Jessie E. Bennett, of Baltimore, Md., who has been spending the summer in Orange County, arrived in this city last week, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. G. H. Southards, of the West End.

Mr. C. B. Antman and Dr. Charles B. Holmes are registered at the "Mechanics," at Chase City.

Miss Ruth Early, of Lynchburg, spent Friday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jackson have returned to Staunton, after a bridal tour, which included Washington, Richmond and Norfolk.

Mr. George B. Thorpe was recently registered at "The Kavanagh," in Lynchburg.

Miss Annie Neal, of Clover, Va., is visiting relatives here.

Miss Edna Hunt, who has been visiting friends in Richmond and Danville, has returned to her home in Chatham, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Montgomery, Miss Alice Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Montgomery, of La Crosse, Wis., spent several days last week in the city.

The Rev. E. G. Grace is spending Sunday in Martinsville, Va.

Miss Lizzie Edmunds is visiting relatives at Hazel, Va.

Misses Seddon and Katherine Wood have returned to their home in Clarksville, Va., after a visit to the Misses Flory.

Mrs. W. B. Buddle and children have returned to their home in Staunton, after a visit to relatives here.

Miss Lucy Goods Boyd, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brinda Boyd Mason, will leave to-morrow to visit relatives in Warrenton, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor and little Elizabeth Taylor, of Ringgold, near Danville, Va., who spent horse show week in town visiting relatives, are now the guests of Mrs. Taylor's father, Mr. J. H. Griffith, of Orange county.

One of the society events of the season for children will be the opening of the dancing class by the Misses Binford on Monday afternoon, at No. 14 North Laurel Street.

Miss Jessie Pendleton will repeat her talk on "Breathing Applied to the Voice" at Woman's Club, on Friday afternoon, November 2d, at 4:30 o'clock. The public are invited to be present.

Miss Blanche Walden, of Greenville, S. C., who attended the horse show here, visited friends in Clover, Va., before returning home.

Mr. James A. Scott, president of the Kirkwood-Otter Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of Lynchburg, spent Friday in Richmond.

Miss Maggie Morton, of this city, was maid of honor at the marriage of Miss Lucy Braxton Garland to Mr. Warner Thomas Wood, which took place in Lynchburg Thursday. Miss Moore was gowned in white point d'esprit over taffeta, with a black velvet hat, and carried white carnations. The Rev. R. T. Wilson, D. D., of this city, performed the ceremony.

Miss Iva Northington, of La Crosse, Va.,

Reinach

107
East Broad Street.

A Showing of New Paris Models

The new French and London Patterns, which just arrived, will be placed on exhibit to-morrow. We take great pleasure to give our friends and patrons this information and feel safe in saying that a more choice and attractive display never was shown.

SPONSOR AND MAID OF HONOR FOR VETERANS' GRAND CAMP

MRS. ALBERT KRAMER.

Judge J. H. Fulton, grand commander of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, has appointed Mrs. William L. Clopton, of Manchester, Va., as sponsor for the Third Congressional District at the meeting of the Grand Camp at Roanoke, Va., October 24th, and Mrs. Albert Kramer, of Richmond, Va., as maid of honor. The Third District is to be represented on having three to the 500 to represent them at the meeting of the camp.

Mrs. William L. Clopton is the wife of Captain W. L. Clopton, of Chesterfield, now judge of the Manchester Corporation Court, who is a gallant commanding general of the Richmond Artillery, and whose gallantry in so many battles of the Civil War is well known.

Mrs. Clopton was born in New Haven, Conn., a descendant of Abigail Safford, who was of Huguenot ancestry on both sides. On her paternal side she was a descendant of the Rev. James Bassett, a minister settling in this country prior to 1710. From him descended the family of the Cloptons.

Mr. Clopton was born in New Haven, Conn., a descendant of the Rev. James Bassett, a minister settling in this country prior to 1710. From him descended the family of the Cloptons.

Her three brothers—William, Robert and Edward—were all officers in the "Confederate Artillery," and Edward was a captain in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and a major in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Infantry. He was a member of the "Confederate Artillery," and a captain in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and a major in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Infantry. He was a member of the "Confederate Artillery," and a captain in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and a major in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Infantry.

Her three brothers—William, Robert and Edward—were all officers in the "Confederate Artillery," and a captain in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and a major in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Infantry. He was a member of the "Confederate Artillery," and a captain in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Cavalry, and a major in the 1st Battalion, 1st Virginia Infantry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jackson have returned to Staunton, after a bridal tour, which included Washington, Richmond and Norfolk.

Miss Alice Burges has returned to her home in Parkers, Va., after a visit to Richmond.

Miss Belle Gandy, formerly of the Methodist Hospital here, is residing this winter near Martins, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Palmer have returned to Lewiston, W. Va., after a brief visit to Cincinnati.

Mr. E. A. Goldfin is visiting his parents in Martinsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Penn have returned to Martinsburg, after a visit to New York.

Mr. Robert B. Peacock is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Peacock, in Martinsburg.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

Mr. H. P. Montague has returned to Martinsburg after spending two weeks in New York.

Mrs. Beulah Estes is visiting relatives in South Boston and Houston.

Mr. A. Randolph, formerly, who was in judged during the horse show here, but returned to Frederickburg much improved in health.

Mr. Joseph T. Harris is visiting friends in Louisville.

Mr. N. J. Wood, of No. 12 North Seventh Street, will leave to New York Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Miller, before returning to Indiana, in Houston, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Penn have returned to Martinsburg, after a visit to New York.

Mr. Robert B. Peacock is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Peacock, in Martinsburg.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

Mr. H. P. Montague has returned to Martinsburg after spending two weeks in New York.

Mrs. Beulah Estes is visiting relatives in South Boston and Houston.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Penn have returned to Martinsburg, after a visit to New York.

Mr. Robert B. Peacock is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Peacock, in Martinsburg.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

Mr. H. P. Montague has returned to Martinsburg after spending two weeks in New York.

Mrs. Beulah Estes is visiting relatives in South Boston and Houston.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Penn have returned to Martinsburg, after a visit to New York.

Mr. Robert B. Peacock is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Peacock, in Martinsburg.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Eddie Brooks, of Martinsburg, are spending the winter in this city.

</